

HOME HAPPENINGS.

—J. A. Kline of this township has a new automobile.

—Said to be thirty automobiles owned in and about Canfield.

—The North Broad street residence of J. J. Flickinger is being painted.

—W. J. Dickson discarded his old automobile and now drives a new Reo.

—Some fields of corn in this locality will be ready to cut the coming week.

—A daughter was born last Thursday night to Mr. and Mrs. George Buzard.

—A large crowd enjoyed the Methodist Sunday school picnic last Friday at Camp Park.

—Quite a number of people from this locality attended the Petersburg fair and races Thursday.

—There was a good rain in this locality Wednesday morning and early Thursday. Jupiter Pluvius got busy and much water fell during the day.

—Rev. J. C. Schaaf will preach next Sunday morning in Zion Reformed church, Rev. Mr. Schultz, who was announced, not being able to be present.

—The Ladies' Auxiliary Board of the Normal college will serve refreshments at the college building next Tuesday evening and a general invitation is extended.

—The county infirmary directors give it out that they expect to house between 300 and 400 men and women at the infirmary northwest of Canfield the coming winter.

—E. H. Speer of Canfield last Saturday purchased Jefferson Dutton's farm of 63 acres near Columbiana, paying $100 an acre. Mr. Speer will shortly remove to the farm.

—Canfield township farmers are busy plowing ground for wheat. While recent rains have helped materially to make the ground work easier it is still much too dry.

—Everything is in readiness for the county teachers' institute which opens in Canfield next Monday morning. The complete program will be found elsewhere in this paper.

—Sunday and Monday mornings were uncomfortably cool, frost being reported in lowlands Sunday morning. Even the "oldest inhabitant" is unable to recall a year when frost came so early.

—A colored camp-meeting opens today in Tanner's grove on the Salem road and continues ten days. Rev. Mrs. M. S. Smith of Ironsop, O., is manager and she has a number of assistant speakers and singers.

—The Canfield Cornet band will hold an ice cream and pumpkin pie festival in the park Saturday night to which the public is cordially invited. The band will give a concert in connection with the festival.

—The first full week in September will be a busy one. Monday, the 4th, Labor Day and pension voucher filing, the 5th, primary elections and the first day of the Canfield fair which will continue the 6th and 7th.

—Many inquiries are being received regarding the next term of the Normal college, indicating that the attendance will be good. President Guy has been assured of a large number of students from neighboring townships.

—A. M. Moyer has a chicken yard back of his Court street residence. The other day a large rat got into the pen, presumably to feast on young chicken, when an old hen attacked the rodent and with a few minutes it was stretched out dead at her feet.

—The demand for space in the exhibition halls at the fair grounds has been so great that all cannot be accommodated. This means that more buildings must be provided for next year as the time is too short to have the work done this year the fair opening Sept. 5.

—H. J. Dickson was standing in an east door of his father's residence last Friday when an elm tree in the yard only a few rods away was struck by lightning. Mr. Dickson was not stunned, but he saw stars for a few minutes. Several women in the neighborhood were severely shocked.

—During the electrical storm last Friday forenoon a bolt of lightning divided, a part of it striking I. S. Reed's barn and the other part hitting a large elm tree fully 200 feet away in Alexander's Dickson's yard. Several slats were torn from the roof of the barn and a number of boards were splintered. A wide strip of bark was torn from the tree.

—Prof. J. C. Zimmerman, who has been in charge of the Winona high school the past year, has been elected principal of the Damascus high school, as successor to Prof. L. U. Hulin, who resigned to go to Greenford. Prof. Zimmerman is a Greenford boy, a graduate of the N. E. O. N. C., and had the good judgment to choose a Canfield girl for his wife. He will make good in the new position.

—After being out of commission for several years the first automobile owned in Canfield is again in evidence, and it runs as quietly and apparently as satisfactorily as the most modern machines. It is a Kensington steamer runabout and was owned by J. R. Fowler, now of Chicago, Ill. Lester Cox, a mechanical genius, bought it a few weeks since and after overhauling it has a machine in which he can give many of the other fellows the dust.

—The fruit on many peach trees in this locality is perforated and drying up and will be worthless. T. Jones of Canfield, desiring to learn the cause of the trouble sent a peach to the agricultural experiment station at Wooster with a request that report be made. This was the reply by W. O. Glover, assistant botanist: "The peaches have been stung by some kind of bill bug, the exact nature of which is unknown to me. I know of no method by which this can be prevented. There is also present in the fruit the peach scab, which is caused by the fungus Cladosporium carpophyllum. This can be controlled by spraying with self-boiled lime-sulfur, formula No. 10 of Bulletin 139. For proper time of applying spray see Spray Calendar."

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—Rain Thursday spoiled the Petersburg fair and races.

—A daughter was born last Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. William Bartholomew who live on the Kline farm south of Cornersburg.

—Leroy Huxley of North Lima, formerly of Canfield, and Miss Ada Reichard of New Springfield were united in marriage this week.

—There are a lot of people who can see no more harm in witnessing a game of base ball on Sunday than in hiking over the road, pleasure bent, in an automobile.

—Frank Wines of Wellsville, in jail at Lisbon charged with abducting and holding captive Hazel Dunaway, aged 15, made his escape Tuesday night after being given liberties while pretending to be sick.

—The Canfield fair comes earlier in the month this year than usual. The Canfield fair is the best and largest attended fair held in this part of the state. Particularly fortunate are the managers of the fair this year in having the fair early. The season is about two weeks ahead this year and fruit, produce and exhibits of all kinds will be just in the prime at the time of the fair and those who attend will be amply repaid in the exhibit. The races and sports will be up to the standard. Next to Columbiana Street fair the Canfield fair will be the best.—Columbiana Ledger.

—The annual reunion of the Paulin family held Wednesday in Southern park was attended by 130 relatives and friends, and a most enjoyable time was had. A big dinner was served at noon which was followed by a musical and literary program and addresses by Rev. O. D. Myers and Joseph Haas. It was decided to hold the reunion next year at the same place on the third Wednesday in August. The old officers were re-elected as follows: President, G. W. Paulin; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Edward Sprinkel; committee of arrangements, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paulin, Mrs. Henry Paulin and Mrs. Geo. Heindel.

Another Bouquet For Taber.

A Telegram sport writer says: Just now the pitching sensation of local amateur teams seems to be Edwin Taber of the Southern park club. Taber is not yet 18, but he appears to have the stamina of a twentier many years his senior. To date he has pitched four games for Manager Doyle's club and has allowed but 12 hits, an average of three hits per game. To add to this he has fanned 64 batters, an average of 16 per game, and has given but one base on balls. The teams he has worked against are Kuhnreutes, Lowville, Hartzell & Rosenbaum and Hubbard. This youngster has all the earmarks of a promising pitcher and his work no doubt will attract the attention of more than one minor league club. Taber's home is in Canfield.

New On the Job.

"Your wife wants you on the telephone," announced the new boy in an office where the different telephones were installed.

"Which one?" inquired the boss, thinking of the two telephones.

"Please, sir," said the boy, "I don't know how many you have."

Her Quondam.

"You say you have had two proposals? What are the young men like?"

"One dresses in fine raiment that his father pays for, and wears his trousers rolled up; the other wears overalls and blouse paid for out of his earnings and wears his sleeves rolled up."

Why It Was Better.

"She has a beautiful complexion."

"No more beautiful than her sister's. She is older, that's all."

"What has that to do with it?"

"She has had more practice putting it on."

The Only Way.

"Is she very freckled?"

"Well, she might wear a few more freckles if she could set those she has up edgewise."
